We've provided images and copy for three social media posts to promote your offerings. The images are sized to work for LinkedIn, X (Twitter), and Facebook.

Social Post #1

Every missed call could be a missed customer. An AI-powered virtual agent answers calls around the clock, captures leads, books appointments, and answers common questions so your team can stay focused on what matters most.

- ✓ 24/7 call answering
- ✓ Lead capture
- ✓ Appointment scheduling
- ✓ Better customer experiences

Social Post #2

Customers don't stop calling after business hours. Give every caller immediate assistance with AI that can answer questions, provide business information, route calls, and schedule appointments even when your office is closed.

Because better customer service shouldn't end when the workday does.

Social Post #3

How much time does your team spend answering the same questions every day?

AI can handle repetitive customer interactions like:

- Business hours
- Appointment scheduling
- Order status
- Frequently asked questions
- Call routing

That means more time for your team and a better experience for your customers.

Social Post #4

Whether it's during lunch, after hours, or your busiest time of day, every customer deserves an answer.

AI helps your business capture leads, qualify prospects, and create a better first impression without increasing payroll.

Never let another opportunity slip away.
